

Music for People Privacy Policy

This privacy policy ("policy") will help you understand how Music for People ("us", "we", "our") uses and protects the data you provide to us when you apply for Summer School.

We reserve the right to change this policy at any given time, of which you will be promptly updated. If you want to make sure that you are up to date with the latest changes, we advise you to frequently visit this page.

What User Data We Collect

When you apply for Summer School, we may collect the following data:

- Your contact information and email address.
- Your age range.
- Your gender, for accommodation purposes.
- Your dietary needs, for the kitchen to provide the correct food.

Why We Collect Your Data

We collect your data for no other purpose than the administration of the school, and the circulation of Summer School material. Completing and returning the application form is confirmation of agreement with this statement.

Safeguarding and Securing the Data

Music for People is committed to securing your data and keeping it confidential. Music for People has done all in its power to prevent data theft, unauthorised access, and disclosure by implementing the latest technologies and software, which help us safeguard all the information we collect from your application.

Our Cookie Policy

We do not collect cookies.

If you want to disable cookies, you can do it by accessing the settings of your internet browser. You can visit <https://www.internetcookies.com>, which contains comprehensive information on how to do this on a wide variety of browsers and devices.

Links to Other Websites

Our website contains links that lead to other websites. If you click on these links Music for People is not held responsible for your data and privacy protection. Visiting those websites is not governed by this privacy policy agreement. Make sure to read the privacy policy documentation of the website you go to from our website.

Restricting the Collection of your Personal Data

At some point, you might wish to restrict the use and collection of your personal data. You can achieve this by doing the following:

When you are filling the forms on the website, make sure to check if there is a box which you can leave unchecked, if you don't want to disclose your personal information.

If you have already agreed to share your information with us, feel free to contact us via email and we will be more than happy to change this for you.

Music for People will not lease, sell or distribute your personal information to any third parties, unless we have your permission. We might do so if the law forces us. Your personal information will be used when we need to send you promotional materials if you agree to this privacy policy.
